NEW CITY COUNCIL SPLIT— SOME SULKING IN THE CAMP

The newly elected city council enough would stay away to prevent isn't meeting with enough selling a quorum. And that was the result. Those members of the council who wished the mayor to have absolute control of the police stayed away, and the insurgent members could have no meeting. So that's the condition.

The gauntlet is down and the mayor is schooling the new members. Some think this is done to cause enough of the objectionable men to resign to put the power back with the mayor, but the insurgents declare they are not thinking of resigning. They expect that pass on the police force, not of course, taking from the mayor his right to lay off a man for cause, at which a quorum is to be pres-but such man could be put back on

If the council didn't agree with the mayor's actions it was evident that this resolution would have gone through but for one thing. Word will be in the camp. All will not be passed out by the mayor that go well if their opinions run coun-

WILL COTTON SEED STILL GO LOWER?

Who knows when cotton seed will quit going down? They are now selling for about $10 a ton. About a year ago, they were worth practically three times as much. The products from cotton seed are them. The difference is coming out lower in every instance and some of the product is as high as it was a year ago.

The farmer is being choked, held up if he sells his seed for $10 a ton, just because cotton is selling a third of what it should.

If the farmer expects to farm an other year, evidently he will expect to buy fertilizer. If he does, he will pay for those seed he is now selling, two or three times over.

Of course there is no law forcing the farmer to take such a price for his seed. You could easily say the mills are justified in paying only enough for seed to get all they need.

A man thoroughly familiar with the oil mill business and prevailing prices says that the same ton of seed that is bought now for $10 is sold when manufactured for $22.50, making a net profit of $8.50; when, in ordinary times, oil mills feel they are doing well to make a profit of

FAIR WEATHER FOR ELECTION

Election day in Houston county is marked with clear weather. The sun is shining, and there are no indications of rain. The polls opened in Dothan at 8 o'clock. Voting was light this morning.

Upon arriving at the court house today, voters were surprised to find doormen to prevent more than 2 or 4 entering the voting room at the same time. Small parties of friends, when they came together, were allowed to enter at the same time, but the old time crowd, which has been permitted to gather at the voting place and wrangle to their

TODAY'S ELECTIONS

Thirty-four United States Senators, 435 members of the House of Representatives; several governors of States, and many minor officials are being elected today.

The nation-wide election today tests.

1. Whether the popularity of President Wilson is the reliable issue which the Democrats have assumed it to be.

2. Whether the Democratic administration can profit by the tariff, currency, anti-trust and Trade Commission laws.

3. Whether the Republicans can show that the change in the tariff has been a great factor in necessitating special war revenue and has made the bad situation created by the European war worse.

4. Whether the Democrats will retain their present overwhelming majority in the House of Representatives.

5. Whether the Progressive party is holding its own or is rapidly vanishing.

6. Whether the recent Constitutional amendment enacting the direct vote of United States Senators is a success.

These are outstanding features of national interest. Prohibition is a great issue. In some states and some prohibition candidates may be elected.

The elections today, however, are remarkable for the way national and international issues are dominating State issues.

The Democrats everywhere have made their campaign on the record of President Wilson and the achievements of his administration. And relying on these, the candidates in many states have made a Wilson endorsement their chief claim to popular recognition.

The Democratic orators have declared that the European war creates a grave crisis and that patriotic Americans should uphold the President and his administration in this critical time by electing Democrats everywhere.

The Republicans in meeting this issue of Wilson have attempted to prove that the Democratic administration has been extravagant, that the new tariff is a disappointment, that the Democratic administration has produced hard times before the outbreak of the Great War, and that if the Republicans had been in power the war would not have made it necessary to lay new taxes as has been the case.

There has been little venom in the discussion of national issues, first, because the public has not read the political news as enthusiastically as usual on account of the prominence of the war news, and second, because the Republicans have carefully avoided making personal attacks on the President.

The Republicans are basing their hopes on the expected complete collapse of the Progressive Party. Their leaders find comfort in the recent Maine election, which showed a Bull Moon vote only 45 per cent as large as in 1912. With that per cent as the basis of their calculations they compute they will win back 54 of the old Republican districts in the coming election.

This calculation takes it for granted however, that practically all the Bull Moons will return to the Republican fold. As a matter of fact perhaps only three out of four will do so.

GERMANS SAY RESISTANCE OF ALLIES IS WEAK

Berlin, Nov. 3.—The official statement today says:

"We have driven the enemy back twenty miles in the vicinity of Ypres. Resistance of the Allies is weakening. Every attack about Lille repelled by our troops. From indications a decisive result favoring German army is imminent. The situation in western Poland is unchanged. Our troops are making gains on the east Prussian front."

LEFT WING OF GERMAN ARMY DRIVEN BACK

Petrograd, Nov. 3.—Army messengers state that the left wing of the German army that attempted to capture Warsaw has been driven back across the frontier to Posen.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor Eagle.

While commanding in every way the holding of a gala week at the Fair grounds during the Christmas holidays, intelligent people do not understand how a "Mardi Gras" celebration can take place at Christmas tide with any more propriety than a Christmas celebration can be held on the Fourth of July. "Mardi Gras," according to the best lexicographers, means "fat Tuesday," and it is the last day of the carnival or festivities immediately preceding the Lenten season.

An Old Timer.

Upon the failure of property owners to file a $7,500 bond with C. E. Harmon, Register in Chemistry, at twelve o'clock last night, the temporary restraining injunction to prevent the city from beginning work on the proposed city hall building on the old power plant site, became null and void.

In greeting the temporary injunction some time ago, Mayor James D. Gardner, associate Justice of the State Supreme Court, upon the plea of the city attorney, said Monday, November 2, as the last day upon which bond should be filed by those who instituted the proceedings.

When seen this morning, Mayor Joe Baker said that he was not surprised but that he supposed work would begin right away upon the city hall building, as outlined by the old council. The mayor would be glad to see the controversy stopped and work allowed to proceed.

It was originally planned to have the building ready by April so that the auditorium could be used as a meeting place for the Alabama Sunday School Association annual convention, which meets here in the early part of that month. It is doubtful if the building will be completed by that time. The council allowed six months in which to complete the city hall.

There has been much feeling among the old for the proposed new hall building, some favoring the old power plant site, North St. Andrews street, while others favored the site at the intersection of Troy and St. Andrews streets.

The old structure finally accepted, but owing to the old alleged administration, the fight was instigated by citizens to obtain the city from encroaching structure upon the lot they owned.

It is believed by many that the new hall will be built on the site of the old, the new building to be larger, and the old building to be demolished.

Another measure, which has been discussed, is the site of the new hall to be the site of the old, the new building to be larger, and the old building to be demolished.

LARGE VOTE BEING POLLED IN U. S. TOWN

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 3.—Reports from over the country show that the election is presenting an unusually favorable condition and a large vote is being polled in Ohio, Pennsylvania and other States where contests are close.

Indications are that Posen will be returned to the Germans from Posen.

Dispatches indicate that Burnett will be returned to Congress from the Seventh Alabama District by a big majority.

Democrats will again sweep Maryland according to early dispatches.

New York is polling a heavy vote especially in Greater New York city, Tammany's stronghold.

Reports up to noon indicate that the Democratic majority in Congress will be maintained.

May Start Work ON CITY HALL

Besides the confusing local issue of prohibition and religion in the Middle and Far West, there is in Illinois the personal issue of Roger Bullian, the Democratic boss, which is bound to be reflected in the votes for members of the congress.

In New York State the congress elections have been neglected for the Gubernatorial and Senatorial contests. In many states the apathy due to the interest in the European war is so extreme that the spoil masters have found it difficult to get audiences together.

Undoubtedly in these states the vote today will be very light.

As a result of today's elections the Progressive contingent in congress will probably be cut down from 16 to 7. It looks likely that "Uncle Joe" Cannon and Mr. H. McKinley, two old Progressives, will be returned next from Illinois after "Uncle Joe" has

THE AMERICAN SOUTH

The caption being a reference to the lack of moisture which cheers and inhibits and not to any dearth of natural precipitation. There can be no doubt that the southern lid is spreading. Virginia is the latest to make it statewide, and the indications are that old Kentucky will be the next. Already most of the blue grass state may wear white ribbon decorations, and the dark and bloody ground isn't so much as it wasAlabama and South Carolina have gone the full distance, and county option is limiting the lusters more and more throughout the sunny-Southland. Truly the booze joke done in southern accents belongs to a past period, and it is no longer necessary for a scion of Southern chivalry to carry a load of liquor to prove it. Even Missouri, with Southern inclinations of long standing 's now far more dry than wet, only a few more of the more populous counties are still clinging to the old order.One may give the race question some credit for the greater spread of prohibition in the South than in the North, but the booze that is bad for the blacks isn't going to help the whites. No one of average intelligence now contends that strong drink is either helpful or smart.The hilarity it furnishes is paid for with bushheads and bum arteries, battered livers and hard times.

And what is happening to the South is being reflected elsewhere in the East and North and West. A dry nation by 1920 may be too much to expect, but that it is coming admits of very little doubt. And just asthe new South is better than the old, so it unquestionably is, so will any state or section profit which adds to the difficulty of obtaining bottled beverages. Long live the lid.

KEEP "MOUTHING."

The Montgomery Times must think it has a great work in hand. It is busy trying to crystallize a sentiment in Alabama in favor of statewide. We thought when Montgomery was given the right to sell whiskey along with some other cities, that the residents of those cities would be satisfied. But they are not; they keep "mouthing" about what a farce prohibition is, showing clearly that they are not satisfied to have whiskey sold around their own door, but that they want it sold around every man's door in Alabama.

We believe that it would be a good idea for those who have the sale of whiskey to let it remain at that, instead of trying to work up a sentiment to wipe out the dry territory in Alabama. It is hardly likely that Alabama will put any more counties into the wet column and there are those who believe that some of the wet ones will be thinned.

TEACH TO LEARN.

Funny old world, but it is the saddest we ever saw, too.

Through a spirit of fun the Troy Messenger invites Montgomery and Dothan to attend her fair this week, and the Montgomery Times thinks that her people would be returning good for evil if they went to Troy, inasmuch as Troy and Dothan did n't send any to Montgomery.

Why carry coals to New Castle? You couldn't expect the people of Dothan and Troy to attend a fair at Montgomery from force of habit, because Montgomery has been trying to have a fair for half a century and failing all over itself most of the time, and going broke. Troy and Dothan are new in the fair business, but they have enough hustlers down this way to make them go. Dothan's fair was a success—financially, and otherwise, although the Times says "Troy not Dothan either, can't begin to equal the exhibits that were made here in all departments."

Well, about that we have our doubts. There is no reason why we shouldn't come up to Montgomery's standard, since we have attended them for many years and learned how to put on a better fair, we believe, and we believe people who saw both will think so.

But be that as it may: When Montgomery gets tired of pouring money in a hole that never fills, and wants to make a success with a fair, if it will take it up with Dothan, we can send them some people up there who will show them how the trick's done. The trouble with Montgomery is the hardening of the arteries. She needs new blood at the head of the affairs.

It is a hard matter for a country editor to write anything these times without breaching too much. But, when you come to think of it, there are many things to preach about.

Until the independent idea is done away with entirely the candidate never knows when his troubles are over.

Practicing economy is something that should be indulged in when it isn't necessary, and then when the necessity does come, it doesn't pinch so hard.

MRS. THOMSON TELLS WOMENHow She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the pains were intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I tried it at once and found much relief. After that I had no pains at all and could do my housework and shopping the same as always. For years I have praised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way"—Mrs. THOMSON, 649 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to carry women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

WHAT DOTHAN WANTS TO KNOW

The Statement is Found in the Statement of a Dothan Resident.

Dothan, Alabama

From week to week, from year to year, there have been appearing in these columns statements made by neighbors, which we have all read with great interest, and many of us with great profit. But what we want to know is, do they stand the greatest test of all—the test of time? Here is conclusive evidence on this point in a Dothan man:

W. D. H. Black, carpenter, 719 S. Appletree St., says "My kidneys were out of order and caused much trouble. I had buckaches and pains through my kidneys. I saw Dr. Dorn's Kidney Pills advertised and procured some at McCallum's Drug Store. They cured me and I have never had any trouble since. Dr. Dorn's Kidney Pills are a great kidney remedy and I am always glad to say a good word for them."

MARVELS OF YELLOWSTONE PARK IN VAST REPRODUCTION PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, SAN FRANCISCO, 1915

Copyright, 1914, by Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company.

One of the most marvelous features of the huge Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco in 1915 will be a gigantic representation of the Yellowstone National park, built by the Union Pacific railroad at a cost of $100,000, under the supervision of Mr. J. R. Kathring, the famous producer, who is now in San Francisco supervising the work. In the background of the picture is seen an exact duplication of the Old Faithful Inn. The large circular space in the center of the picture will be filled by a topographical map 220 feet in diameter and reproducing the topographical features of the park. The man on the right is looking over a cliff 100 feet high; a 100 feet below him there will be a waterfall 55 feet high, falling into a great basin below the cliff. There will be wonderful geysers in the park, which will be one of the most attractive sections of the "Zone."

The above view shows this wonderful exhibit as it appeared while under construction in September, 1914.

Seasonable Dress Fabrics

La Porte

La Porte

It is an iron-clad rule here to satisfy every customer—to show only the smartest styles—the most fashionable materials and complete assortments. So far as we know we have never lost a customer who bought dress goods here and was disappointed with her purchase—consequently we feel certain that we can satisfy your most exacting requirements.

For us to name a great number of choice fabrics would confuse and distract you—yet it is generally conceded that our Dress Goods assortments are as great as those found in many of the stores in the larger cities in the South.

We specialize in La Porte Fabrics—we buy direct from these great woolen mills, and give our customers the price-benefit of our close buying connections.

THE SOUTHERN GIRL

Oh, yes, I am a Southern girl
And glory is the name,
And boast it with far greater pride
Than glittering wealth or fame,
I am not the northern girl.
Her robes of beauty rare
Though diamonds grace her snowy sweat
And years bedeck her hair.

Chorus.

Hurray! Hurray! for the sunny South so dear
Three cheers for the homespun dress
That the southern ladies wear.

II.

My Southern dress is plain I know
We hate palmetto too,
But then it shows that Southern Girls

For Southern rights will do.
We're not the bravest of our lads
To battle with the foe
And we will lend a helping hand

We love the South, you know.

Chorus.

The Southern land's a glorious land
And has a glorious cause,
Three cheers for the Southern rights
For the Southern boy!

And our sweethearts to the South we never mind
We'll never forget
Our Southern land.

OCTOBER

October is a gay brunet.
She wears a yellow shawl,
She stands beneath the maple trees
To watch the red leaves fall.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Julia Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been receiving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.
